Did you know Oregon hospitals provide financial assistance to patients with a household income up to 400% of the federal poverty level?

If you are contacted by an individual in your district struggling with a medical bill, please direct them to their local hospital’s financial assistance program for help.